Revvng up to help charity

MG car owners got behind the wheel to help out four-legged friends at a charity drive.

Motorists from Wycombe Area MG Owners Club completed a 60-mile drive from the Royal Standard of England pub in Brindle Lane, Forty Green to Blenheim Palace in Oxfordshire on Sunday.

David Lloyd, administrator for the club, said: "We had 66 cars at the Royal Standard of England and the lady from Stokenchurch Dog Rescue also turned up and brought a few dogs along. The drivers took part in a raffle and competed for the 'best car' before travelling through the Bucks countryside in aid of Stokenchurch Dog Rescue.

Matthew O'Keefe, landlord of the pub, said: "It went very well. They came for breakfast before meeting up in the car park. Some of them came back later for Sunday dinner."

The drive raised £530 which will be donated to the dog charity.
